Valencia College Department of Dance

2012-2013 Dance Program Outcome: Execute Evidence of Performance Elements

Dance Performance Rubric

Dr. Suzanne R. Salapa, Chair, Department of Dance

The following standards were compiled by the Department of Dance as an evaluation of our Associate in Arts in Dance Performance degree students for the upcoming dance performance. Repertory I/II, Dance Production and Performance Ensemble: Valencia Dance Theatre students are involved in the evaluation process. In the age of assessment, we have created this tool to assimilate information based upon our Associate in Arts in Dance Performance degree program Performance Outcome. Please assess each student to the best of your ability.

Does all or almost all of the following:

-Knowledge of choreography, musicality

- Displays proficiency and execution of movement/piece

-Executes movement combinations with energy

-Memorization and attention to detail

- Demonstrates an assimilation of corrections

-Works well in a group

-Displays an level of professionalism in preparation and execution of audition/rehearsal

Choreographer: Jon Lehrer, LehrerDance

Residency: Monday and Friday, September 17-21, 2012

Genre: Modern

Name	Excellent	Good	Acceptable	Needs Improvement	Recommendations