PEER OBSERVATION OF TEACHING

Peer Observation of Teaching from Valencia Community College. Peer Observation of Teaching provides a structured framework for the ongoing improvement of teaching and learning through collaboration, reflection and discussion. Audience: Faculty in all disciplines

“Collaborative Peer Review” by L Keig and M.D. Waggoner. This article, from the National Teaching and Learning Forum website, uses a straight forward question and answer format in a scholarly approach to the benefits of and recommendations for peer observation of teaching. Audience: Faculty in all disciplines

“Research-Based Recommendations for Improving Peer Review” from the LEARN (Learning Enhancement, Assessment, and Research Network) Center at the University of Washington. Audience: Faculty in all disciplines