Selected recipients are paired with experienced NSF PIs who can guide future proposal development. Recipients will also have access to other NSF development resources (such as technical assistance webinars), as well as become a part of the ATE community. Funding supports travel to two, in-person workshops to meet with mentors and other representatives from NSF: The first workshop is in New Orleans, LA February 5-8, 2019 and the second in St. Louis, MO July 23-25, 2019	$4,800	No

The 5-day colloquium includes career interest and skills inventory along with site tours at various industries based on the State of Florida meta-majors, such as Business, Health Sciences, and STEM. The proposal also includes college visits and workshops on topics such as Diversity, Conflict Resolution, Teamwork, and Resume Writing and Interviewing for students across all grades. Additionally, students can participate in a multi-week SAT/ACT test preparation course. The final component is mentor support through training and networking.	$23,000	No
