Night Shift Differential

Policy Statement:

A career service employee assigned to a night shift will be paid a differential for each calendar month of service; one-half (1/2) of a month or more shall be considered a major fraction worked. A night shift is defined as a shift in which 50 percent or more of the time worked is between 5:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m. The amount of the differential will be specified in the college operating budget.
