

Learning Outcomes: Baking & Pastry Management

❖ Baking and Pastry Management, Degree

- The student will discuss the various organizations of the hospitality industry.
- The student will experience different baking procedures.
- The student will integrate human management skills into the classes.
- The student will compare various employability skills.
- The student will apply sanitation procedures in food service operations.
- The student will identify procedures relating to cost controls.
- The student will differentiate various baking and pastry service operations

❖ Baking and Pastry Arts, College Credit Certificate

- The student will discuss the various organizations of the hospitality industry.
- The student will experience different baking procedures.
- The student will integrate human management skills into the classes.
- The student will compare various employability skills.
- The student will apply sanitation procedures in food service operations.
- The student will identify procedures relating to cost controls.
- The student will differentiate various baking and pastry service operations.