

Learning Outcomes: Civil/Surveying Engineering Technology

- Solve mathematical problems using algebraic and trigonometric functions.
- Design projects using visualization and current industry methods.
- Demonstrate fundamental knowledge of the systems and processes used to construct the built environment.
- Perform basic land surveying instruments and perform related calculations.
- Perform the basic concepts of highway design and subdivision design.
- Practice professional and ethical responsibilities of the profession.