

Synonyms

Components of grant proposal	Other terms funders may use
Summary: A very brief overview of the proposal. One sentence addressing each component of the PP&amp;PW format	Executive Summary; Overview; Abstract
Introduction: Describes the applicant organization including background and credibility. What has the organization achieved? What is its experience on this topic?	Agency Background; Applicant History; Organizational Capability Statement; Organizational Overview; Organizational Description
Problem Statement: Describes the problem you will address.	Statement of Need; Program Justification; Current Conditions; Purpose of the Application
Outcome Objectives: Describes the specific, measurable ways in which you expect the problem you have presented to change as the result of your efforts?	Goals; Outcomes; Accomplishments; Milestones
Methods: Describes what you will do to address the problem you have described in order to achieve the Outcome Objectives you propose?	Activities; Approach; Project Design; Program Plan; Implementation Strategy; Work Plan
Evaluation: Presents your plan for determining the degree to which you achieve your intended outcomes. Describes how you will document that you operated the effort as you said you would?	Formative Evaluation; Summative Evaluation; Outcome Evaluation; Process Evaluation; Program Assessment; Outcome Measures
Budget: Describes very specifically what your effort will cost and how those costs were calculated.	Budget Justification; Detailed Line- Item Budget; Program Expenses; Resources Needed
Future &amp; Other Necessary Funding: Describes any funds, other than the ones you are now requesting, that you will need to successfully carry out this effort – and where they will come from. Describes how you plan to continue this effort after the grant funds you are now requesting end.	Sustainability Plan; Program Continuation; Future Plans