MAXIMUM AWARD OF CREDIT

This agreement makes it possible for a student to receive 3-6 semester hours of college credit for one of the approved industry certifications listed above towards the Computer Aided Drafting and Design A.S. degree program at Valencia College which is in accordance with commonly accepted good practice in higher education.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

Valencia’s faculty and staff who have responsibility for the supervision and coordination of the Computer Aided Drafting and Design program have assessed the adequacy of the documentation and determined that the learning outcomes, performance standards, and assessment procedures of the certification meet the college standards for college credit course work and that the learning outcomes are consistent with the course work in the A.S. Degree program being articulated.

AWARD OF CREDIT PROCESS

To have the courses reported on the official Valencia College transcript, students must do the following:

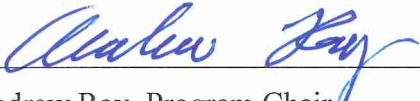

1. Apply for admission to Valencia College and meet the College entrance requirements.
2. Submit a completed Valencia College application for admission, satisfy the requirements for Degree-Seeking Status, including submission of all official transcripts, and declare a major in the Computer Aided Drafting and Design program.
3. Complete orientation and comply with the appropriate placement, course prerequisites and requirements of the college.
4. Meet with the Career Program Advisor to verify all of the requirements have been met including the following:
 - a. Student must provide a current and valid copy of one of the required industry certifications.
5. After verifying all of the requirements have been met, the Valencia Career Program Advisor or Program Chair for the articulated program will determine eligibility, and notify the Registrar's Office of acceptable credit to be awarded. (Note: Credit will be awarded after the drop/add date, and the evaluation process has been completed).

TERMS OF AGREEMENT

This agreement applies to students who have earned one of the approved industry certifications that are included in this agreement. The agreement will be reviewed as needed and it shall remain in effect until either party identifies a need for revision.
