

SCHOOL OF HEALTH SCIENCES

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Healthcare remains one of the most complex and integrated service sectors in this nation affecting every person and area of business in our country. Within this complexity, Valencia College serves as a responsive partner ready to meet the workforce needs of changing healthcare paradigms in our diverse community.

Job Outlook in the Central Florida Area

Occupations in the healthcare field continue to be among the fastest growing due to technological advances in patient care, increased demand for healthcare services and the long-term care needs of an increasingly elderly population. Nurses represent the largest segment of the healthcare workforce in the United States. In Central Florida alone, there are about 2,000 openings for registered nurses each year.
