

The final evaluation of the portfolio is based on its overall quality. In the evaluation, panel members must rely on their professional judgement, guided by their holistic interpretation of the Valencia College Portfolio Evaluation Rubric.

Complete the gray form fields below. Advance by using the "tab" key.

- NEW PROCEDURE: A final portfolio is considered acceptable only if three out of the four panel members consider the portfolio acceptable. A final portfolio will be considered unacceptable if only two of the ILP Review Panel members consider the portfolio as a whole to be unacceptable.
- If one element is not at the acceptable level, the overall review of the portfolio is not necessarily unacceptable.

IN THE SPACE BELOW, WRITE ANY OVERALL REMARKS AND/OR COMMENTS EXPRESSING EXEMPLARY PERFORMANCE OR SUBSTANTIAL CONCERNS

All 4 panel members agreed that this was more than an acceptable portfolio. Indeed, we thought it was exemplary.

Wanda has made great strides in her professional and personal development. She is a committed, conscientious and caring teaching. She is also turning into a reflective scholar. Her portfolio amply demonstrates all the qualities that Valencia is looking for.

Since our last meeting, Wanda has done a great deal to expand her professional horizons. We were impressed by her publishing, her continued record of innovation in the classroom, and her broader involvement in campus affairs.

It's traditional at this point to provide some gentle chiding masquerading as encouragement. In Wanda's case, it really is encouragement because we have no real criticisms to offer. Rather, we are very impressed by her obvious abilities. Indeed, our main hope is that she'll take her talents to a wider stage. In the next year or two, we would love to see Wanda participating in and presenting at conferences, pursuing her doctoral studies and taking on even more leadership roles in the department.
