Eligibility for financial aid is determined by the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), which currently uses financial information from two years prior to estimate a household's current circumstances. Financial Aid Services recognizes that households can experience changes in income or other finances that are not reflected in their information from two years prior.

When these situations occur, it is possible to re-evaluate a student's aid eligibility based on their current circumstances through the Professional Judgment (PJ) process. All Professional Judgment applications are required to have a detailed letter of explanation and supporting documentation. If you have been selected for Federal Verification, a Professional Judgment cannot be processed for changes until verification is complete.

There must be a significant change to the household finances to be considered for a Professional Judgment.

Non-applicable Circumstances

- Standard living expenses (utilities, car payments, etc.)
- Mortgage payments
- Credit card/other personal debts
- Filing for bankruptcy
- Vacation expenses
- All other discretionary expenses

TYPES OF PROFESSIONAL JUDGEMENT:

Change to Expected Family Contribution (EFC)

- Loss or change of employment
 - Note: A change in student's aid eligibility will likely not occur if:
 - The person who lost employment has currently been rehired and is earning a similar or higher salary than two years prior
 - The loss or change to income was not significant
- Child Support reduction or change
- Divorce/Separation of parents/spouse
- Change of marital status for dependent students
- Death of parent(s) or spouse
- Excessive out of pocket medical and/or dental expenses that exceed 11% of household's Adjusted Gross Income
- One-time taxable income (IRA disbursement, pension distribution, etc)

A change to the EFC could, but is not guaranteed to, result in a change of eligibility for need-based awards.

Change to Cost of Attendance (COA)

Out-of-pocket costs for the following:

- Costs associated with a student's disability
- Childcare expenses for a dependent child of the student
- One-time purchase of a computer for educational use
- One-time costs of professional licensure required for student's major

A change to the COA does not result in a change for eligibility for need-based awards, only increases the room in a student's budget for aid including PLUS and private loans.
