Dalton Joseph

2018-2019 DISTINGUISHED GRADUATE

Dalton Joseph came to Valencia College with one goal: to beat the odds.

Today, we salute Joseph as the Valencia College Mary S. Collier Distinguished Graduate for 2019. But a few years ago, not many people would have bet on his future.

Growing up as the son of Haitian immigrants, in a single-parent home, he faced long odds to start with. To make matters worse, he was surrounded by violence—living in an apartment where a man was murdered outside their front door, and later in a neighborhood where breaking into houses was considered a better job for a teen than mowing grass or washing cars.

Against that backdrop, Joseph saw where his life could be headed. And he knew that unless he did something drastic, he could end up like many of his friends: dead or in prison.

He came astonishingly close to the same fate. Although he'd been a good student and captain of the basketball team in middle school, Joseph faltered in ninth grade and didn't get his physical completed in time to participate in sports at Evans High School. That slip-up suddenly provided the once overbooked young athlete with lots of free time—time to hang out with the guys in his neighborhood. And before long, 15-year-old Dalton Joseph was in over his head.

Eager to make money—yet uninterested in jobs like cutting grass—Joseph fell in with a gang of young men breaking into homes. “I was going down a dark path,” he says now, “and yet the deeper I got into the juvenile system, the more desperate I felt. There was no turning back.”

But when a close friend died, leaving behind a baby he would never know, and his older brother was sent to prison with a sentence of more than 40 years, Joseph took stock of his life. “I asked myself: Do you want to be next?”

That moment transformed him. He began working, first in construction and then as a busboy at a restaurant. And as he toiled long hours, he heard the echoes of his father's voice in his ears. Education is the key to a better life, his father always said. His father knew from experience. A high school dropout, he worked long hours driving a taxi.

Fueled by determination, Joseph began studying for a GED. And when he earned it, he went back to Evans High School to share his success with one of his favorite high school teachers. She not only encouraged him to apply for a Bridges to Success scholarship, she lobbied on his behalf.

But even that was a long shot—because most Bridges students are high school graduates, not high school dropouts with a juvenile record.

So, when Joseph won the scholarship and started classes in summer of 2016, he was determined to prove that the Valencia College team had not made a mistake.

“I said I was going to do everything I didn't do in high school—sit in the front, not in the back of classrooms. I showed up every day, not just when I felt like it. I completed every assignment, not just the ones we could finish in class.”

And when his first semester grades came back, Joseph had earned all A's—a 4.0 grade point average. In high school, he'd quit in 10th grade with a 1.8 GPA.

He became a member of the West Campus Student Government Association, and was invited to become a member of Phi Theta Kappa, the national honor society for students at two-year colleges. He also represented Valencia College at national conferences on race and ethnicity and college leadership.

He also began volunteering at fire stations because he dreamed of becoming a fire fighter. But when he learned that he wouldn't get hired because of his juvenile record, Joseph didn't let that defeat him.

Instead, he set his sights on becoming a teacher. Today, he works at a community center part-time and regularly volunteers at Evans High School, where he shares his story and his message of resilience with current high school students. What he wants most of all, says Joseph, “is to be a symbol of hope and change.”

And what better symbol than a 22-year-old who has already beaten the odds—becoming the first in his family to earn a college degree, graduating with a 3.8 GPA and headed for a career where he can change lives?

VALENCIA COLLEGE

Valencia College is an innovative leader in higher education with a national reputation for teaching excellence. The college places the highest value on the success of each individual student. In an ongoing effort to be responsive to the community, we build relationships with high schools, universities and corporate partners to strengthen academic scholarship and economic development.

Valencia College is truly a part of the community, meeting diverse educational needs at eight locations, and dozens of business and community sites in Orange and Osceola counties. Our Poinciana Campus opened in 2017 and our newest campus, Downtown will open fall 2019.

From its beginning in 1967, the college has met the ongoing challenge of keeping pace with the dynamic growth of the community and has continued, in an ever-changing environment, to fulfill its mission. As an educational leader, the college provides an “open-door” comprehensive postsecondary education.

The college fulfills its mission by offering degrees that provide for transfer to a university or for immediate entry into a career. we also offer continuing professional education to thousands of residents who recognize the value of lifelong learning.

The faculty and staff who bring these educational experiences to Central Floridians are scholars as well as practical experts in their fields. They are caring people who put their energies into instruction and their emphasis on the success of individual students.

Ninety-three to ninety-seven percent of Valencia College Associate in Science degree graduates are placed in jobs in their chosen field. Valencia College graduates are UCF’s number one source of transfer students, and make up one-quarter of their graduates.

In 2011, Valencia College was named the inaugural winner of the Aspen Prize as the top community college in the nation for 2011-2012. The Aspen Institute, a Washington educational- and policy-studies center, selected the college for this prestigious award based on an overall graduation rate nearly three times that of other colleges, as well as the high job placement rates of its workforce training programs. According to U.S. Department of Education data, Valencia College ranks fourth among the nation’s 1,200 two-year colleges in the number of associate degrees awarded, fifth in the number awarded to Hispanics and seventh in the number awarded to African Americans. A 2012 study found that Valencia College boosts the economy of Orange and Osceola counties by $1.05 billion a year.

DEGREES AT VALENCIA COLLEGE

Students at Valencia College can earn an Associate in Arts (A.A.) degree which enables them to transfer to bachelor’s degree-granting colleges and universities in almost any major field of study. The college’s LifeMap system provides information, online planning tools, and personal assistance to help students select the appropriate courses so that their credits will transfer, tailored to the prerequisites for their intended major, and ensuring a smooth transition to a four-year college or university.

For those interested in a more direct path to the workplace, we offer Associate in Science (A.S.) degrees and certificate programs which prepare graduates for immediate employment. Over 100 A.S. degree and certificate programs are available in business, health care, public service, graphic design, digital media, entertainment technology, engineering technology, hospitality and culinary, information technology and veterinary technology. The college, assisted by its program advisory committees, continually monitors the area’s workforce needs, developing and modifying programs to keep in step with local demand.

Valencia College began offering bachelor’s degree programs starting in the fall 2011 term. Students on a specific career track can transfer into programs that lead to a Bachelor of Science in Radiologic and Imaging Sciences, Electrical and Computer Engineering Technology, Cardiopulmonary Sciences, Nursing or Business and Organizational Leadership.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The history of academic dress dates back to the early days of the European universities. It can be traced to both ecclesiastical and civilian sources.

Gowns are usually black, but some colleges and universities use colors. The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has oblong sleeves, open at the wrist with the base hanging down in the traditional manner. It may be worn open or closed. The gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped sleeves, velvet panels down the front and velvet chevrons on the sleeves. It may be worn open or closed.

Hoods are black and lined with the official colors of the college or university conferring the degree. The edging of the hood is velvet and distinctive to the subject to which the degree pertains.

For all academic purposes, including trimmings of doctoral gowns, edging of hoods, and tassels of caps, the colors associated with the different disciplines are as follows: agriculture—maize; arts, letters, humanities—white; commerce, accountancy, business—drab; dentistry—lilac; economics—copper; education—light blue; engineering—orange; fine arts, including architecture—brown; forestry—russet; journalism—crimson; law—purple; library science—lemon; medicine—green; music—pink; nursing—apricot; speech—silver gray; pharmacy—olive green; philosophy—dark blue; physical education—sage green; public administration—peacock blue; public health—salmon pink; science—golden yellow; social work—citron; theology—scarlet; and veterinary science—gray. Caps are usually square mortarboards, although some colleges and universities prefer the round cap or soft tam.

Members of governing bodies of academic institutions may wear doctoral gowns.

At Valencia College, the president wears the official gold medallion of the college seal. Faculty, professional staff and administrators who served the college ten or more years may wear a pewter medallion. Faculty who earned tenure from 2006 on may wear a pewter medallion. Valencia College Foundation Endowed Chairs for Learning Leadership Distinguished Professors and Scholars are identified by gold fourrageres. National Institute for Staff and Organizational Development (NISOD) Excellence Award recipients may wear the circular NISOD medallion. The League for Innovation in Community Colleges' John and Suanne Roueche Excellence Award recipients may wear the Circular Roueche Award medallion.

SENEFF HONORS COLLEGE

The Valencia Honors Program was established in 1988 to provide unique learning opportunities to students from diverse backgrounds. During its history, the Valencia Honors Program has become known as one of the exemplary two-year programs in the nation. In June 2008, the CNL Charitable Foundation and the Valencia College Foundation established an endowment fund to support educational opportunities at the college; in fall 2012, the Valencia Honors Program was renamed the Seneff Honors College.

The vision of the Honors College is to discover potential in students and inspire excellence. Admission of candidates into the Seneff Honors College is a consideration of a student's potential beyond simply a test score or grade point average. All highly motivated students who desire to make the most of their Valencia College experience are encouraged to apply. The honors curriculum is structured to provide purpose, meaning and engagement for students and faculty in the Seneff community and beyond. Students may choose one of four tracks for their honors study: interdisciplinary studies, leadership, undergraduate research or global studies.

Honors classes at Valencia College emphasize individual, original, and creative learning opportunities both inside and outside of the traditional classroom. Students have the chance to study abroad, engage in community service, participate in cutting-edge research, travel to professional conferences and assume leadership roles. Most students in the Seneff Honors College receive full tuition scholarships while at the college, and many receive transfer scholarships when they graduate. Honors students are ensured a voice in the governance and direction of the program through the Honors Student Advisory Committee. The program is guided by an advisory board consisting of college faculty, administrators and students.

A student who completes one of the four tracks (a minimum of 23 hours of honors coursework plus co-curricular activities) with a 3.5 grade point average graduates as a Seneff Honors College Scholar, and will wear a blue stole and medallion during commencement. A student who completes 18 hours of honors coursework plus co-curricular activities with a 3.33 grade point average graduates as a Valencia College Honors Scholar and wears a blue stole and honor cord. And a student who completes 12 hours of honors coursework with a 3.25 grade point average is awarded an Honors Certificate and wears a blue stole.
