

International Education
Week

Learn more at

IEW.state.gov

List of Highlighted Events:

East Campus

“International Food and Dance Festival”

Tuesday, November 13, 2018; 11am-2pm; Mall Area

Hosted by International Student Services and Valencia International Club. Funded by Student Development. Come sample free food from around the world and be entertained with international musical and dance performances.

“Peace Breakfast: An Interfaith Gathering”

Wednesday, November 14, 2018; 8:00am-9:45am; 8-101

Faith and thought leaders will present a touchstone on a philosophy, verse, or scripture about how their faith teaches hospitality or "welcoming" as a means of restoring community. Event sponsored by Peace and Justice Institute (PJI).

“Cultural Learning Stations”

Thursday, November 15, 2018; 11am-2pm; Mall Area

Hosted by International Student Services, Valencia International Club and Wellness Ambassadors. Funded by Student Development. A variety of engaging activities for students, faculty and staff. Participants will learn about the different cultures and careers around the world. Activities may include international games, henna painting, foreign languages, and photos in different countries.

Osceola Campus

“Sustainability around the World and at Home”

Monday, November 12, 2018; 2pm-3pm; 4-105

This presentation will provide examples of sustainability leadership from several other countries in the areas of transportation, infrastructure, water conservation, waste reduction, energy, and climate change. In addition, this presentation will highlight Sustainability programs and study abroad at Valencia, as well as ways to get involved with Sustainability on and off campus. Hosted by Resham Shirsat, Director of Education for Sustainability.

“A Taste of Mozambique: Food and Fashion by Sadia Chicalia

Monday, November 12, 2018; 5pm-7pm; Building 1 Exhibition Hall

Don't miss this opportunity to experience a bit of Africa here at Valencia. Thanks to support from Student Development, we are happy to welcome Ms. Sadia Chicalia to offer us a taste of Mozambique.

“IEW Valencia’s World Cup”

Tuesday, November 13, 2018; 12pm-6pm; Building 1 Lawn

Student soccer tournament, consisting of six teams; each team will represent a different nation. Each team will have the opportunity to play at least two games. Winning and runner-up teams will receive trophies and medals respectively. Come out if you want to play or be a spectator. We will have music, drinks and snacks. Hosted by International Student Services.

Lake Nona Campus

“Sharing Global Experiences”

Monday, November 12, 2018; 4pm-5pm; 1-148

Have you lived in another country? Have you visited and/or studied abroad? Would you like to learn more about exciting study abroad opportunities? Please join us at this event, which is designed to promote cross-cultural awareness as we celebrate the rich diversity of our global community during International Education Week. Hosted by Professor Jonathan Lair.

Poinciana Campus

“Poinciana’s International Education Week Celebration”

Tuesday, November 13, 2018 and Wednesday, November 14, 2018; 10am-2pm; Main Hall

Come join Poinciana Campus in Celebrating International Education Week! Located on the first floor main hall there will be tables displaying and showcasing a variety of countries. Learn about these cultures, and gain new insights of the world beyond your community! Additional International Flags will be added to the Plaza! Hosted by Student Development.

West Campus

“Valencia Connects”

Tuesday, November 13, 2018; 12pm-2pm; SSB Patio

This event is designed to promote cultural awareness on campus and how this can connect students to a career path. Hosted by Student Development and Career Center.

“A Taste of Mozambique: Food and Fashion by Sadia Chicalia

Tuesday, November 13, 2018; 1pm-3pm; Building 5 Atrium

Don’t miss this opportunity to experience a bit of Africa here at Valencia. Thanks to support from Student Development, we are happy to welcome Ms. Sadia Chicalia to offer us a taste of Mozambique.

“We are One”

Thursday, November 15, 2018; 12pm-2pm; SSB Patio

VISA Club, International Student Services, and Student Development invite you to travel the world with us by learning about different countries and regions, enjoying cultural performances from students and local artists, playing interactive games, and sampling delicious ethnic food. No matter where you are from, we are all one!

Winter Park Campus

“Annual Multicultural Day of Thanks: One World, Many Stories, Many Flavors”

Tuesday, November 13, 2018; 11am-1pm; Student Lounge

Come join us as we enjoy great food, reminisce about family traditions, and fellowship with one another. Donate 3 non-perishable items or make a $3.00 cash donation to enjoy a smorgasbord of delicious homemade dishes and help other students have a meal for the holidays. Hosted by Student Affairs and Student Development.

“Tour around the World”

Thursday, November 15, 2018; 1pm-3pm; Portico Area

Stop by and come prepared to use all five senses as you embark in this journey around the world! Familiarize yourself with countries you may not know about, enjoy delicious food, and take home a piece of each country. Hosted by Tanya Alas, Academic Advisor.

IN CELEBRATION OF NATIONAL CAREER DEVELOPMENT MONTH
AND INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

VALENCIA CONNECTS

TRANSLATE YOUR INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE TO A GLOBAL CAREER
EXPLORE EDUCATIONAL PATHWAYS | LEARN ABOUT VALENCIA DISTINCTIONS

LUNCH PROVIDED AND CHANCE TO WIN PRIZES!

TUES. NOV 13TH - 12 P.M. TO 2 P.M.

VALENCIA COLLEGE PRESENTS

A Taste of Mozambique

FOOD & FASHION
BY SADIA CHICALIA

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2018

5-7PM

Osceola Campus Building 1
Exhibition Hall

1800 Denn John Lane, Kissimmee, FL 34744

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 2018

1-3PM

West Campus Building 5
Atrium

1800 South Kirkman Road, Orlando, FL 32819

SPONSORED BY STUDENT DEVELOPMENT

THE POINT
HOTEL & SUITES

CFBACC
Central Florida Brazilian American
Chamber of Commerce