

Thursday, June 20th

|          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|----------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:00 am  | Registration / Continental Breakfast                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 8:30 am  | Welcome – Opening Session Special Events Center, Main RoomThe Purpose of Assessment is to Improve LearningKurt Ewen, Assistant Vice President, Institutional Effectiveness and Planning, Valencia College                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|          | Session A- Building 8, Special Event Center                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Session B- Room 9-128                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Session C- Room 11-350                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 9:30 am  | Intensive Workshop on Developing and Assessing Program Learning OutcomesWendi Dew, Director of Faculty DevelopmentDr. Laura Blasi, Director, Institutional Assessment, Valencia College                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Program Reviews: Aligning Outcomes and Strategic PlansDr. John Frederick, Director of Learning Outcomes Assessment;Dr. Michael Self, Vice Provost Institutional Effectiveness, Miami Dade College                 | Tracking Pathways to Student SuccessMr. Peter Usinger, Director of Institutional Research, Effectiveness, and Planning, Polk State College                                                                                                        |
| 10:45 am |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | A model for Assessing General Education Utilizing an Online Institutional AssessmentMaggie Tymms, Assessment Director; and Ashley Caron, Baccalaureate Assessment & Accreditation Coordinator, St. Petersburg College | The Phoenix Project: Helping Academically Distressed Students SucceedDr. Julie Corderman, Manager, Student Services, Valencia College                                                                                                             |
| 12:00 pm | Lunch Special Events Center, Main Room                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|          | Session A- Special Event Center                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Session B- Room 9-128                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Session C- Room 11-350                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1:00 pm  | Providing Evidence of Student Learning: A Transparency FrameworkDr. Natasha Jankowski, Assistant Director, The National Institute for Learning Outcomes Assessment (NILOA)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | ★ Keeping the Assessment Fires Burning: The QEP Beyond the Five-Year Impact ReportDr. Alex Perez, QEP Program Manager; and Ms. Alissa Sustarsic, QEP Mathematics Coordinator, Lake-Sumter State College               | Valencia College Student Affairs Major Decision SurveyMs. Danielle Boileau, Counselor, and Dr. Adrian Manley, Counselor, Valencia College                                                                                                         |
| 2:15 pm  | Opportunities and Innovations: Assessing Developmental Education Going Forward – Exploring an Example from a MOOCDr. Karen Borglum, Assistant Vice President, Curriculum and Articulation, Valencia CollegeDr. Davis Jenkins, Senior Research Associate, Community College Research Center(CCRC), Teachers College, Columbia UniversityCarol A. Weideman, Ph.D. Mathematics Professor and Dan Fumano Project Technologist / Math Readiness Program Director, St. Petersburg College | Division Action Plans: Putting Student Learning FirstDr. Deborah Larew, Director, Student Disability Services, Valencia College                                                                                       | ★ Psychology’s General Education Outcome: Improving Through AssessmentDr. Barbara Van Horn, Professor, Indian River State College                                                                                                                 |
| 3:30 pm  | Coffee Break Special Events Center, Main Room                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 3:45 pm  | Supporting Faculty Assessment of Student Learning Online: Using Quality Matters™ to Strengthen Online Teaching and LearningErin O’Brien, Professor, English; and Charles Fox, Assistant Director Faculty & Instructional Development, Valencia College                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Showing “the Elephant” the Door: Using ResultsMs. Barbara June Rodriguez, Senior Assessment & Planning Associate, and Dr. John Frederick, Director of Learning Outcomes, Miami Dade College                           | Discussion: Changing Institutional Culture to Promote Assessment of Higher Learning (NILOA Reading)Kurt Ewen, Assistant Vice President, Assessment and Institutional Effectiveness, Valencia College♦ Recommended Reading |

★ Indicates a “hands on” data session

♦ Discussion session– Reading– Changing Institutional Culture to Promote the Assessment of Higher Learning. NILOA <http://www.learningoutcomeassessment.org/occasionalpaperseventeen.htm>

Friday, June 21st

| 8:00 am Registration / Continental Breakfast |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|----------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                              | Session A- Special Event Center                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Session B- Room 11-351                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Session C- Room 11-350                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 8:30 am                                      | Program Outcomes Assessment and Faculty Development: A Necessary PartnershipWendi Dew, Director, Faculty and Instructional Development, and Susan Ledlow, Vice President for Academic Affairs and Planning, Valencia College                                                                                                                                                                                       | Work in Progress: Learning Outcomes Assessment within Dance and TheatreJohn DiDonna, Program Chair, Theater, and Dr. Suzanne R. Salapa, Program Chair, Dance, Valencia College                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Work in Progress: Learning Outcomes Assessment within the Humanities and the LibraryKaren Styles, Professor, Humanities; and Regina Seguin, Diane Dalrymple, and Beth King, Professors, Library, Valencia College         |
| 9:45 am                                      | ★ Mapping Program Learning Outcomes to CurriculumAndy Ray, Professor, Building Construction Technology, Valencia College                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | CCSSE – Shared Reporting Practices at State Colleges with a Focus on High Impact PracticesMr. Peter Usinger, Director of Institutional Research, Effectiveness, and Planning, Polk State College; Dr. Laura Blasi, Director, Institutional Assessment; and Dr. Stacey Johnson, Campus President – East and Winter Park, Valencia College                                              | Work in Progress: Learning Outcomes Assessment within English and English for Academic Purposes (EAP)Dr. Christina Hardin and Marcelle Cohen, Professors, English, Valencia College                                       |
| 11:00 am                                     | Featured Speaker Special Events Center, Main RoomShowing an Impact: Using Assessment Results to Improve Student LearningDr. Natasha Jankowski, Assistant Director, The National Institute for Learning Outcomes Assessment (NILOA)                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 12:00 pm                                     | Lunch Special Events Center, Main Room                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|                                              | Session A- Special Event Center                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Session B- Room 11-351                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Session C- Room 11-350                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1:00 pm                                      | ★ Assessing Critical Thinking and Creativity in the Creative ArtsSteven Benson, Professor of Art/Assistant Chair, Southeast Center for Photographic Studies & Coordinator, Interactive Media, Daytona State College; Dr. Michelle Lee, Associate Professor of English, Daytona State College; and Jessica Kester, Associate Professor of English, Daytona State College, Poetry Editor, Journal of Florida Studies | Student Engagement Through Self-Assessment: Research-based Strategies – A Panel Discussion*The Life Map Tool for Students*Carnegie’s Statway™ Pathway &*Action Research: Collaborative WritingDr. Laura Blasi, Director, Institutional Assessment; Donna Colwell, Professor, English; Kathleen Marquis, Academic Advisor; Russell Takashima, Dean, Math, Valencia College | Showing “the Elephant” the Door: Using ResultsMs. Barbara June Rodriguez, Senior Assessment & Planning Associate, and Dr. John Frederick, Director of Learning Outcomes, Miami Dade College                               |
| 2:15 pm                                      | Deans Session I: Using Action Research in Program Outcomes AssessmentDr. Lisa Armour, Vice President of Assessment, Research, and Technology, Santa Fe State College                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Work in Progress: Learning Outcomes Assessment within Dance and TheatreJohn DiDonna, Professor, Theater, and Suzanne Salapa, Professor, Dance, Valencia College                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Work in Progress: Learning Outcomes Assessment within Speech and the LibraryLiza Schellpfeffer and Tina Tan, Professors, Speech; and Regina Seguin, Diane Dalrymple, and Beth King, Professors, Library, Valencia College |
| 3:30 pm                                      | Coffee Break Special Events Center, Main Room                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 3:45 pm                                      | Deans Session II: Using Action Research in Program Outcomes AssessmentDr. Lisa Armour, Vice President of Assessment, Research, and Technology, Santa Fe State College                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | How Business Intelligence Transformed the Culture at St. Petersburg CollegeDr. Jesse Coraggio, Associate Vice President, Institutional Effectiveness, Research, and Grants; and Dr. Dan Gardner Coordinator, Institutional Research, St. Petersburg College                                                                                                                           | Strategies to Improve the Use of Data in Decision MakingKurt Ewen, Assistant Vice President, Institutional Effectiveness and Planning, Valencia College                                                                   |

★ Indicates a “hands on” data session